

EUROPEAN FOLK NETWORK CONFERENCE – 28 & 29 NOVEMBER 2019

BASIC INFORMATION

A two day conference for all working in the field of traditional/folk arts and culture in Europe - to plan the future work and priorities of the European Folk Network (EFN).

The focus of the conference will be on discussions with members to develop ideas and plans for EFN's future activities. There will be two speakers prompting thoughts about how and why a network can operate.

A full schedule and agenda for the conference is available to download from the EFN website.

The venue is Scotland House, Rond Point Schuman 6, 1040 Brussels, Belgium. Delegates should book hotel accommodation for themselves. Directions to Scotland House and information about accommodation are available to download from the EFN website.

Booking for the conference can be made online at www.brownpapertickets.com/event/4408271

Conference attendance is free for all individual members and for one representative of each organisation member. Members must have paid their EFN membership fee before the conference.

One representative of a member organisation can attend free. Member organisations are welcome to send a second or third representative to attend but they must pay an additional fee of €25 for each extra person.

Individuals and representatives of organisations who are not members of EFN should pay conference attendance fees - €40 for individuals and €120 for representatives of organisations. These payments can be counted as membership fees after the conference if the person or organisation wishes.

NOTE: payment is by Euros only. Please be aware that you may incur a currency conversion charge from your bank or credit card if you are paying in Euros from a non-Euro account.

Registration begins on Thursday 28 November at 11.30 and the conference programme begins at 14.00 until 17.00.

There will be tea and coffee available on this day but no lunch - please find your own lunch before the programme begins.

There will be a musical performance in the evening.

Arrangements for delegates to find dinner on the evening of 28 November will be announced as soon as possible as part of the overall conference schedule.

On Friday 29 November registration is from 8.30 to 9.30 and the conference programme begins at 9.30 - and ends at 15.00. There will be tea and coffee available and lunch provided on this day.
